Dear fellow Alaskans,

As students throughout Alaska return to school, your state government is working hard to help public school students and job-seeking adults better prepare for employment. In light of that, I wanted to share some recent achievements and progress with you in my report on advancing Alaska education.

Please visit http://www.gov.state.ak.us/pdf/EducationReport_August2008.pdf to find out about the progress we've made.

Subject: RE: Warrant Distribution

To Whom It May Concern: I find this action countering Governor Palin's latest actions in trying to assist Alaskans in receiving monies in a more timely fashion. This action means that I will have to wait an additional 2 days or so before receiving my pay check which is part time pay anyway and will create a somewhat hardship on me as I pretty much live from pay day to pay day. Mailing to my home address is not feasible as I have been living in various locations for the past few years due to higher rental costs. The only other choice is direct deposit which I have purposely declined for the past few years and don't wish to choose at this time. The office staff person that walks across the street to get my paycheck and others in our office certainly doesn't seem to have such a busy schedule that this twice a month duty takes them away from their work....probably not much more time than sorting the mail or taking cigarette breaks. I hope that you will please reconsider this action and not cause an inconvenience or hardship on those of us who need our paychecks as quickly as possible. Thank you...Louise Howerter

Subject: Warrant Distribution

Juneau Staff,

Commissioner Kreitzer recently met with the CEA Board. During this meeting it was suggested that we (DOP/LR) discontinue distributing payroll warrants and advices to Juneau office locations which will allow the staff responsible for this task to focus on other important tasks. The Commissioner is committed to implementing this suggestion within the Department of Administration. After working out the "bugs" within our own agency, implementation within other agencies will begin.

Therefore, if you receive your warrant or pay advice at the office you will receive an Address Authorization/Change Form on the next distribution day. I am asking that you complete this form by providing a mailing address for your warrant/advice. If you'd like to continue to receive your warrant/advice at the office, you may have it mailed to the office (P.O. Box 110201, Juneau, AK 99811).

Additionally, if you are still receiving a warrant, please consider direct depost.

I appreciate your cooperation.

We wan't you to know that you are doing an excellent job in leading our state. Keep up the good work! You do have great pressure on you, but always know you do have people who believe in you.

For the past 10 years I have been a teacher and coach here in Fairbanks. I also pastor the church where Click and Darlene attend. Due to the fact that In 1987 I was an Honorable Mention All-American in Basketball, I know thousands of my native people, in the interior, on a first name basis. I'm originally from Tanana, Alaska. My cousin Irene Nicholia-Todd worked for Knowles and was a state Representative.

I just wanted to say keep up the good work and you have our support.

We definitely want to see you get another term after this one.

Sarah,

Thank you for proposing, and signing into law the $1200. energy rebate. It will help, but it only begins to offset the much higher energy costs we are experincing here in the interior.

I am writing to urge you to call the legislature back for another special session, now, between the primary and general elections, to consider and pass a cap and subsidy for our heating fuel costs.

We are not asking for anything special, only the same sort of deal the Anchorage area has been getting for ~32 years. We need BTU parity now.

Thanks, and keep up the good work.

Hello Governor Palin. My name is Jaimie Miller, and I live many, many miles away in Central Pennsylvania, but I wanted to contact you regarding the birth of your son. My daughter is 2 and she has down syndrome. In fact, many families in our area started the Centre County Down Syndrome Society. We have worked very hard for community awareness and education regarding children with special needs, especially down syndrome. I was elated to hear your story- and see that you are a prominent political figure and I was hoping that you would be able to bring all of our children to the forefront of America for people to see their unbelievable importance and abilities as well as their beautiful souls. Our kids are often left out as so many things in our world are mainstreamed anymore. My beautiful baby girl has been through so much in her life, yet she has changed my life in ways unimaginable. I just wanted to say hello and send you my congratulations and express my thoughts of happiness and excitement about your baby boy. Although many, many miles away, your son is connected to our children here in central Pennsylvania.

Governor,

On Friday, Commissioner Bishop is going to be sending out an e-mail message for Labor Day to all Labor employees and wanted to know if you were going to send out a message to all state employees. His message is below, followed by a possible message from you to all state employees, pending your approval:

Greetings!

On Monday, the 126th Labor Day, we'll honor the dignity of human labor. That includes all of you who are part of our Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development family.

Each day you are on the front lines of supporting Alaska's almost 400,000 working men and women.

I heartily thank you for your hard work – and your dedication to each other that makes Labor such a great place to work. I am so very proud to serve as your commissioner.

I wish you a safe – and restful – Labor Day!

A Labor Day Message from Governor Sarah Palin

As we take this opportunity at the end of our Alaskan summer to spend time with friends and family members this Labor Day, I want to thank you, the hard-working employees of the State of Alaska for your service. We honor and celebrate your achievements and dedication, and we thank you for all you do to meet the needs of your fellow Alaskans. Enjoy a safe and happy holiday weekend!

BEFORE THE ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

The Alaska Wildlife Alliance, Lowell Thomas, Alaska Center for the Environment, Alaska Wildlands Adventures, and the National Parks and Conservation Association, Complainants	Case No. 08-12-CD v.
State of Alaska, Governor Sarah Palin, Department of Fish & Game Commissioner Denby Lloyd, and the Board of Game, Respondents

ORDER

The Alaska Wildlife Alliance filed a complaint on August 14, 2008, alleging that the State of Alaska and the named respondents violated AS 15.13.145(b) by spending public funds to influence the outcome of Ballot Measure #2 on the August 26, 2008 primary election ballot. The complaint also alleged violations of AS 15.13.040(d), which requires the reporting of expenditures, and AS 15.13.050, which requires registration before spending money on a ballot measure. On August 15, 2008, the Commission granted the complainants' request for expedited review and held a hearing on August 19, 2008. The Commission ruled that a preponderance of the evidence did not support a violation. On August 20, 2008 the Commission issued an order dismissing the complaint.

On August 21, 2008, the complainants filed a request for reconsideration of the Commission decision and its order based on a differing interpretation of AS 15.13.145(b). The Commission granted the petitioners' request for reconsideration under AS 44.62.540 and 2 AAC 50.470(j) and set the following deadlines for the parties:

- The respondents have until August 29, 2008 to file a response to complainants' request for reconsideration.
- The complainants have until September 2, 2008 to file a reply.

The Commission will rule on the request after considering the arguments by the parties.

By order the Alaska Public Offices Commission on August 25, 2008, the case will proceed under reconsideration.
